

2022-2023 Academic Progress Financial Aid Appeal

Student's name: _____ La Salle University ID#: _____

In order to maintain your eligibility for Federal and institutional financial aid, all students must maintain the following standards of academic progress as outlined below.

A student must successfully earn 67% of all attempted credits at the end of each academic year.

All students are also required to achieve the cumulative grade point average as listed below to continue receiving

Institutional and Federal financial aid:

Credits Earned	Required Cumulative GPA
1 – 23	1.50
24 – 53	1.75
54 and above	2.00
Graduate Students	2.00

If a student fails to meet both of these standards, then the student loses his/her eligibility for Federal and institutional financial aid.

Please select one of the following reasons for your appeal.

Death of a relative - Please provide documentation

Injury and illness of student - Please provide documentation

Special Circumstances

To Whom It May Concern,

Enter response here:

Enter response

If the Dean's Office places you on suspension limited load non-degree status, then you become ineligible for all financial aid even if this appeal is approved.

1. It is recommended that you meet with the Assistant Dean of your School, Graduate Program Director, or Academic Advisor to review this document.
2. Student should forward this document to the Financial Aid Office for review.

After the Academic Progress Committee reviews the appeal, they